LYS (AUTOMATIC)

NEW

AUTOMATIC CRAMPONS | 12 POINTS | CARBON STEEL

Light and compact 12-point steel crampons, designed for classic and technical mountaineering, from glacier progression to mixed routes.

- Available in automatic and semi-automatic versions.
- Structure in tempered steel.
- Innovative system for extremely accurate and stable micro-adjustment of the fit, without the use of tools.
- Innovative rigid/foldable connection system which allows the crampon to bend on itself, reducing the overall dimensions for transport. At the same time, it ensures maximum shoe stability and reliability during progression.
- Special adjustable closure buckle on the security sling.
- Made in Italy!

Supplied with:

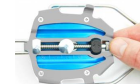

- Ultra compact Cordura bag
- Removable front and rear Antibott
- Double sized connecting bars (37 ÷ 43) (42 ÷ 47)

Lys is the steel crampon of performance and versatility, dedicated to the alpinist who wants to deal with a variety of terrain, without settling for compromise.
